SAVAGELY

Commissary General Egan Roasted General Miles.

Called Him a Liar Who Should Be Avoided by Every Honest Man

And Who Should Be Drummed Out of the Service and Imprisoned.

Tremendous Sensation at the Meeting of the War Investigating Commission This Morning.

By Telegraph to THE TIMES.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 12.—Commissary General Egan made a savage attack on General Miles, in a long statement read by him before the war investigating committee. He charged that General Miles' statements contained serious reflections on the commanding generals of the Santiago expeditions. He said who ever called the beef furnished the army "embalmed beef" was a liar.

W. B. Miles, in charge of Armour & Co.'s city plant, testified as to the methods of canning meat and of packing and inspecting, practically repeating what had been testified to by other meat men.

Commissary General Egan, in the course of his testimony, called General Miles "a liar, who lied in his throat, lied in his heart and lied in every part of his body," who "perpetrated gross scandal" and who "should be drummed out of the service and imprisoned and should be avoided by every honest man and barred by every club." He characterized the interviews of General Miles as "filth."

WRECK NO. 2.

N. & W. Freight Came to Grief at High Station Today.

The Norfolk and Western railway had another wreck Wednesday, in addition to the one at Kinnickinnick. About nine o'clock last night the south-bound freight, with Engineer Murphy at the throttle, collided with a north-bound freight train coaling at High station, near Chillicothe.

The north-bound train was on the main line and had right-of-way. The south-bound train should have taken the side-track, but not having done so, the result was a collision, in which the fireman and brakeman were thrown from the train and injured.

BUILDING BRIDGES.

Receivers of B. & O. S-W. Railway Let Contracts for a Half Hundred.

By Telegraph to THE TIMES.

Baltimore, Jan. 12.—One of the largest bridge contracts that has been awarded in many years has just been let by the receivers of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. In order to place the lines west of the Ohio river in proper shape to handle the heavy freight equipment that is being used east of the river, the receivers have found it necessary to rebuild fifty-one bridges between Benwood, W. Va., and Chicago. To insure the structures might be rapidly pushed to completion, it was decided to divide the work among three companies.

The Youngstown Bridge company, of Youngstown, will erect thirty-one bridges on the Central Ohio division between the Ohio river and Newark, Ohio; the Pencyd Bridge works was awarded the eleven bridges on the Lake Erie division, Newark to Sandusky, and the Edge Moor Bridge company, of Wilmington, Delaware, will erect the bridges needed on the Chicago division.

The total cost of these bridges is in the neighborhood of $300,000, and it is expected that all will be in place by September. Nearly six thousand tons of steel will be needed for the structures.

The Ills of Children.

Dr. Hartman offers his advice to parents on the treatment of coughs and colds.

LEARN to guard against colds. Nearly all the ill of children begin with taking cold. If your child catches cold don't wait a moment before attacking that cold.

To the ignorance or neglect of parents is due the fatal termination of many children's complaints.

If you are not informed as to the proper course to pursue to drive off a child's cold, write to Dr. Hartman, president of the Surgical Hotel, Columbus, O., for advice, and ask for some of his free books which contain the most pertinent facts about colds and coughs and all catarrhal diseases.

Pe-ru-na, Dr. Hartman's great prescription, is wholly vegetable. It wards off colds entirely if taken at the beginning in proper doses. It breaks up settled colds quickly; it is scientific and safe; there is no mystery about it. Dr. Hartman's books tell just how it acts and why. All druggists sell it.

Mrs. C. T. Rogers, Elgin, Ill., says: "Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, O."

DEAR SIR:—"Your medicine saved my baby's life. We stopped all treatment but yours, and now he is a beautiful boy. It was certainly a miracle."

Mrs. Becking, East Toledo, O., writes to the Pe-ru-na Medicine Co.:

DEAR SIR:—"Pe-ru-na is the best medicine I ever had in my house. My children had a bad cough, and one of them had the lung fever. I cured them all with Pe-ru-na."

Proper knowledge of the treatment of coughs and colds is of the first importance to parents. This knowledge is offered free. All catarrhal diseases succumb to Pe-ru-na.

CLAY CLEMENT

The Noted Author and Actor at the Grand Tonight.

Appears With Mrs. Clement in their Strongest Play—"What Happened to Jones" Saturday Night.

It is said that in sentiment, atmosphere, character, drawing, dialect, and allwise that goes to make a story truly a tale of the Southland, Mr. Clay Clement in his "The New Dominion," and also in his play, "A Southern Gentleman," has succeeded far beyond any of the plays of the past.

The stage of the Grand, on January 14th, will be occupied by John Allison, E. Soldene Powell, Barney McDonough, Frank X. Hope, Philip Calvert, Charles Greene, Cora Williams, Laura Case, Helen Harcourt, Eleanor Brodway, Katherine Weston and Maude Allison, to illustrate George H. Broadhurst's roaring farce, "What Happened to Jones." It is said to be very bright and entertaining and well presented. The Jones of the story is a drummer for hymn books and playing cards. He gains the knowledge that Ebenezer Goodly, a staid professor of anatomy, has attended a boxing match in company with his son-in-law, and that the place was raided. When Goodly flees to his home he follows after him, and, being himself in danger of arrest, is protected by being put into the coat of a bishop who is expected to visit the home, which only adds to his embarrassment because of the maiden lady in the household, who is waiting to be claimed by the bishop, and leads to situations both interesting and amusing.

Doc. Waddell writes from the East that "What Happened to Jones" is the best show on the road. He urges all his Portsmouth friends to be at the Grand Saturday night, January 14th.

Clay Clement's new comedy drama "A Southern Gentleman," is said to be filled with bright, witty lines, strong situations, and withal tells an interesting story. No new play has attracted more favorable notice in years than has "A Southern Gentleman" at the Grand tonight.

Clay Clement, in his new play, will play a character wholly unlike his charming Baron Hohenstaufen in "The New Dominion." The new play is "A Southern Gentleman"; and while it occurs in war times, it is not a war story, but one of love. Mr. Clement's character is that of a Southern gentleman of the chivalrous old school, in which his quiet, intense and artistic methods are most satisfying.

Every other day some tavern keeper announces in his local paper that he is coming to this city to take charge of the Biggs house. The last man to make this statement is, according to a Gallipolis exchange, Nat L. Bryan, from which we clip the following:

"There have been some important changes made in the management of the Park Central hotel recently. The senior partner, Nat L. Bryan, has disposed of his interest in the business to D. F. Bryan, who will continue to act as 'mine host.' The retiring partner will enter a larger field of labor, probably as landlord of the Biggs house at Portsmouth. 'Nat' is popular the country over and will no doubt prove successful in any locality. He has a host of friends here who will be sorry to see him go."

WILL NOT DOWN

The Cavanaugh Case Bobs Up Again in Court.

Prosecutor Bannon Stoutly Declares His Position Is Right

And Files Motions to Make Corrections in the Journal Entries—Only One Clear Point in the Case.

The Cavanaugh case will not down, but the specter keeps bobbing up to trouble the breasts of the court house officials.

The latest move in the case was the filing of two motions by Prosecuting Attorney Bannon yesterday evening. The first motion was as follows:

State of Ohio, Scioto county.
No. 3052.
Ohio vs. James Cavanaugh.—Now comes the plaintiff and asks the court to docket the indictment filed as No. 3068 in this court as No. 3052, because

First: The grand jury found an indictment under 3052, which is now erroneously docketed as No. 3068.

Second: Because the indictment filed as No. 3068 charges the same offense as is charged in the transcript in No. 3052. HENRY BANNON, Attorney for Plaintiff.

The second motion states that now comes the plaintiff and moves the court to set aside and vacate the entry filed this, January 5th, 1899, in this case, reading as follows: "The grand jury having found no bill of indictment against the said defendant, it is ordered by the court that he hence be discharged" for the following reasons:

First: Because it is not true that the grand jury found no bill of indictment against this defendant.

Second: Because the grand jury did find a bill of indictment against the defendant for the identical transaction with which he is charged in the transcript filed and entered on the appearance docket in case No. 3052.

Third: Because said entry was never taken in open court upon application of either defendant or plaintiff, but was entered upon the journal of this court by the clerk thereof only.

Fourth: Because said entry was not entered in accordance with the rules of this court.

Fifth: Because said entry is contrary to law and the rules of practice.

Sixth: Other reasons.

HENRY BANNON.
These motions, when heard by the court, will reopen the whole case, and it will be given a thorough airing. The case hinges on these points: Cavanaugh was bound over for picking the pockets of James Callahan. The journal entry shows no indictment was returned in this case and that the defendant was ordered discharged. Mr. Bannon disputes the correctness of this entry. He maintains the indictments returned were identical with the case on which Cavanaugh was bound over and that the journal entry is wrong. The court will pass on these motions later.

It is understood that Mr. Bannon disclaims all responsibility for fixing the bond of Cavanaugh at $400. Judge Milner reduced the bond of Pratt to $400 from $1,000 in open court, and later is alleged to have advised Judge Ball as to the amount of Cavanaugh's bail. The only clear point in the whole case is that Cavanaugh is gone, and, for all officials here know, may be robbing right and left at his own sweet will.

Dr. Pierce Coming.

Next Sunday is the day appointed in the Episcopal church as missionary Sunday for the Sunday schools. The rector of All Saints, Rev. J. D. Heron, has arranged for a grand missionary rally at three o'clock in the afternoon. The meeting will be held in the chapel, and will be addressed by the Rev. Dr. Pierce, of Kenyon college. Children and young people generally will be welcomed to this meeting.

Returned Home.

Soon after the return of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Whitelaw from their holiday visit to Mr. Whitelaw's parents in Cincinnati, Mrs. Whitelaw became ill with a grippa, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Johnson, of East Fourth street. There she remained until yesterday, when she was well enough to return to her home on Market street.

The Independent Order of Foresters will meet this evening at the Times hall to install officers. A full attendance of members is desired.

John Suter Ailing.

John Suter of Court street, has been very ill with the grip. His father, John V. Suter, has charge of the delivery wagon during his illness.

SOCIAL NEWS.

The Young Ladies' Sodality of the Holy Redeemer church will entertain with a social early in February.

Members of the Ladies' Musicales will please report the number of tickets sold for the chamber concert, and hand in money for the same at once, either to Mrs. E. F. Draper, Miss Minta Edwards or Miss Alice Blake, as may be most convenient.

Dr. and Mrs. Geo. O. Fisher, of West Sixth street, have received an invitation to be present at the wedding of Miss Nora Ward to Mr. Victor Kinney Dodge, of Lexington, Kentucky. The wedding will take place in the Second Presbyterian church January 25th. The charming bride-to-be and her sister, Miss Courtney, were leading spirits in the Algonquin circle last winter at St. Augustine, Florida. No sail on the river, clam-bake, bicycle ride or whist party was complete without them. Their itinerary included Palm Beach, Miami and the Bahamas, so they reluctantly bade farewell to their many St. Augustine friends, who missed them greatly.

Miss Ward has frequently visited this town and endeared herself to many, who will wish her much joy and happiness in her matrimonial venture.

The history department of the Woman's club will entertain Friday afternoon at the usual place of meeting, All Saints chapel. Members will please bear in mind that January is one of the four months in which the club meets every week, instead of semi-monthly.

The members of the Gibbons Literary club are anticipating much pleasure next Wednesday evening, when they will meet at St. Mary's school hall. A fine musical program and a dance will be the chief features of the evening. The committee in charge of the entertainment is Mrs. Geo. Goodman, Misses Maggie Flynn and Clara Glockner.

Last evening, as Miss Beattie Bowman, of East Ninth street, was preparing to go to a meeting of the Orpheus Mandolin and Guitar club, at the home of the Misses Wendelken, of No. 901 Chillicothe street, suddenly the bell rang. Upon opening the door Miss Bowman was surprised to see not only the Misses Wendelken but also the other members of the Orpheus club. They soon informed the astonished young lady that they were aware of the fact that January 11th was the date of her birthday anniversary and that they had come to celebrate the event. Music was one of the pleasures of the evening, and at a late hour refreshments were served by the parents of the young hostess, who had arranged with the club to surprise their daughter.

The members of Christopher Columbus Council, Young Men's Institute, have arranged for a series of informal dances, to be given every Wednesday evening. The first one took place last evening, under the management of Messrs. J. J. Barry, Wm. Cody and Joseph Barry, at the hall on Gallia avenue.

Music was furnished by the Euclid Mandolin club, and the mandate, "love well the hour and let it go."

Lottridge Damage Suit.

The damage suit of Samuel Cutlip against Dr. Wm. Lottridge went to the jury yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. They wrestled with it until midnight last night, when they were excused. No agreement was reached up to noon today. This afternoon the jury had the judge's charge read to them again, the evidence of Dr. Sulzer and others read and then retired. They are still debating the case.

A False Rumor.

The report was in circulation today that F. C. Daehler had bought the E. J. Corson corner for $13,500.

IT IS INEVITABLE

Clash Between Filipinos and Uncle Sam's Troops.

VIEWS OF AMERICAN RESIDENTS.

They Complain Bitterly of the Inaction of Major General Otis in Leaving the Water Supply of the City of Manila at the Mercy of the Insurgent Hordes Under Aguinaldo.

Hongkong, Jan. 12.—The Americans who are arriving here from Manila complain bitterly of the inaction of Major General Otis, particularly in leaving the Manila water supply at the mercy of the rebels. They say a collision between the Americans and insurgents is inevitable. Aguinaldo's dispatches to the Filipino junta here have been stopped.

Rebels May Attack Manila.

Madrid, Jan. 12.—General Rios, the Spanish commander, cables from Manila reiterating the assertion that the situation of affairs in the Philippine islands is most grave. The rebels, it appears, are concentrating in the neighborhood of Manila with the intention of attacking that place. Great preparations are being made for the defense of the city. The Spanish general also asserts that the natives of the Visayas have again refused to permit the Americans to land, threatening to resist by force if an attempt is made to do so.

It Worries Spain.

Madrid, Jan. 12.—It is not to the advantage of Spain that a settlement in the Philippines is delayed. The fact is fully realized that Spanish shipping is suffering from the uncertainty as well as the interests of the religious orders, whose property is at stake and many of whose members are prisoners. It is not true that the Spanish commanders have been ordered to give the Americans trouble. Spain desires to bury the hatchet.

Another Manila Fleet.

San Francisco, Jan. 12.—By the end of the month another Manila fleet will sail out of the harbor. If the Senator and Ohio come in on time they can be prepared to go out at the same time as the Scardia and Morgan City. They can carry two regiments, so the three regiments can begin their ocean journey together.

Press Messages Censored at Manila.

New York, Jan. 12.—The Western Union Telegraph company's central office has been advised by the Eastern Extension company that all press messages for Manila are subject to censorship.

Queen Lili's Protest.

Washington, Jan. 12.—A petition from former Queen Liliuokalani of Hawaii was presented to congress protesting against the United States' assertion of ownership to the crown lands of Hawaii as a taking of property without due process of law, and appealing to the president, congress and the people for a restoration of these lands.

Alger's Reception.

Washington, Jan. 12.—Secretary of War and Mrs. Alger gave a brilliant reception at their home to the officers of the army and their families. Veterans of three wars were there, as well as the young volunteers of the past summer, all in full dress uniform, which, with the handsome gowns of the women and the beautiful decorations of the house, made a scene of unusual splendor.

Carolines to Be Held.

Madrid, Jan. 12.—Senor Sagasta denies that any negotiations are in progress for the sale of the Carolines, remarking that the previous consent of the cortes would be necessary. This is not to be taken, however, as indicative of any intention to sell. The premier intends to convoke the cortes as soon as the United States senate has approved the peace treaty.

No Want at Dawson.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 12.—Clifton Sifton, minister of the interior, received a report from Commissioner Ogilvie of the Yukon stating that there would be no starvation in Dawson this winter, although the government would have to assist a number of persons who went into the country without means.

BUILDING

Was Active in Portsmouth in Eighteen Ninety Eight.

And One Hundred Thousand Dollars Were Expended in Improvements—More Next Year.

The following list of building permits was taken from the records of City Clerk James C. Adams. It includes all permits issued during the past year of 1898, and in round numbers foot up $88,000 spent in Portsmouth for improvements.

While the permits foot up a total of $88,000, it is a fact that over a hundred thousand, as any one with even slight experience knows, actual cost will always largely exceed the estimated figures. That is well for hard times, for any time in fact, and 1899 is going to show a very material increase. Contracts made and projects already on foot give promise that something near a quarter of a million dollars will be expended in improvements within the twelve months.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Buckland are in Cincinnati on a business and pleasure trip combined.

John G. Dillon, of the Wait Cabinet company, is in Charleston, W. Va., on business for his firm.

Oscar W. Newman is in Cincinnati today on business. He was accompanied by Mrs. Newman and little daughter, Katharine, who will enjoy the day at the home of Judge and Mrs. A. C. Thompson, of Mt. Auburn.

Miss Newman's Condition.

Miss Catherine Newman, who was severely burned at her home in New Boston last November, is still critically ill. A letter from the Newman home to relatives here gives the information that Miss Newman is gradually getting weaker and the attending physician entertains little hope for her recovery.—Ironton Republican.

That N. & W. Wreck.

The wreck on the N. & W., mentioned in yesterday's Times, was caused by east-bound freight No. 90 breaking in two. Ten "empties" were ditched and broken up by the force of the collision. Three tramps, who were on the train, had narrow escapes from death.

First National Bank.

At the election yesterday afternoon of the officers of the First National bank the following were elected: J. W. Bannon, president; A. M. Damarin, vice-president; Simon Labold, cashier.

J. M. Stockham Honored.

At the convention of county commissioners of the state, now in session at Toledo, J. M. Stockham, of this city, was honored by being placed on the committee on program. You can't lose a Portsmouth man. Being an Obloan, he naturally bobs up when there is any kind of an office in sight, regardless of salary. However, the more salary the better. But salary or no salary, he will take the office.

Robinson in Charge.

Receiver Jos. Robinson took hold of the B. & O. S-W. at Cincinnati Wednesday and found a mountainous pile of work awaiting him. Incidentally there are some people on the B. & O. S-W. who are shaking in their shoes so hard that the rattle of their bones can be heard from Dan to Beersheba. They have "reasons," as Chimmie Fadden would remark.

A Big Cut on Fruit.

Your old fruit merchant has just returned from Cincinnati with a large assortment of choice fruits of all kinds. He wishes to announce to his friends that for the next few days he will sell at remarkably low prices for the purpose of further introducing his goods to Portsmouth people.

BLIND WITH ECZEMA

Three Children Afflicted 20 Months. CURED BY CUTICURA.

My second child got eczema when seven months old. Three months later my first child got it, and following him, the last one, two years old. For twenty months they suffered fearful agony. Their whole bodies, especially their faces, were so sore and raw that they were blind half the time. No words can describe the suffering of my second child, whose whole body was one bloody mass. He was constantly crying, could not get no sleep, and he actually did not look human. I tried doctor after doctor without the slightest relief. The first application of CUTICURA brought relief in each case, and after fourteen days' treatment with CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA (ointment), the worst case was cured. Mrs. ANNIE KING, 515 E. 12th St., N.Y. City.

STRONG PROTEST

Against the Movement on the People of Iloilo.

TEXT OF ALLEN'S RESOLUTION.

Nebraska Senator Claims the President, Army and Navy Are Waging War Without Authority of Congress—Foraker Hints at a Philippine Republic in His Address on Territorial Expansion.

Washington, Jan. 12.—In the United States senate, the following resolution was offered by Mr. Allen of Nebraska: That any aggressive action by army or navy on the part of the United States against the Philippines would be an act of war unwarranted on the part of the president and the exercise of constitutional powers vested exclusively in congress.

Mr. Allen then said: In submitting this resolution, Mr. President, I desire to make some observations. I am led to introduce this resolution because the press dispatches indicate that our troops are moving upon the people at Iloilo. I introduce it as a protest against the waging of war by the president and the army and navy without authority of congress. I think it is a fact indisputable that war can not be legally waged without the authority of congress through a formal declaration. In my opinion there can be no doubt that whatever of possessory rights we may have in the Philippine islands, we acquired from Spain.

Mr. Allen then proceeded to discuss the situation in the Philippines and finally declared that the officers of the army and navy were passing affairs forward in the islands into a critical state.

He was interrupted by Mr. Hoar, who said:

Where do we get the right to use force against the people of Iloilo? I would be glad to be answered by the attention of the distinguished senator from Delaware (referring to Mr. Gray, one of the peace commissioners). We made a protocol some time in August, under which we are still living with Spain.

Mr. Hoar then read from the protocol showing that the United States would hold the bay, harbor and city of Manila until the disposition of the Philippine islands should be determined, and continued:

That clearly implied that we will make no advance upon Spain or the Spanish people on the islands until the situation shall have been changed. If now we have the power to use the military forces against the Philippines, where does it come from?

Mr. Gray, at whom the question of Mr. Hoar seemed to be directed, rose and said:

I wish to remark that the question of the senator from Massachusetts answered in part the position taken in his remarks by the senator from Nebraska (Mr. Allen).

After pointing the reasons why this was true, in his opinion, Mr. Gray said:

Technically we are still at war with Spain. It is true that we are living under a truce, but in pursuing the war the president was simply exercising the powers that had been conferred upon him by the warring power. The only question that can arise will be as to whether we are, in making war upon the Philippines, violating the protocol, and if there are such violations it will be a matter between the United States and Spain without reference to anybody else.

Mr. Hoar contended it was a breach of faith to attack Spain at Iloilo and had policy to attack Aguinaldo. After some further debate, the resolution went over.

Foraker's Significant Remark.

Mr. Foraker addressed the senate in opposition to the declaration of the Vest resolution that the United States has no constitutional power to acquire foreign territory to be maintained as colonies.

The senator's strong assertion that the acquisition of the Philippines was temporary in character created a sensation in the chamber. He maintained, however, that we have a legal right to hold the islands permanently.

Senator Teller introduced a bill for the amendment of the war revenue act so as to provide for a tax upon the actual value or selling price instead of the nominal value of certain stocks.

In executive session Senator Berry moved that the debate upon the treaty should be conducted in open senate. There were only casual remarks upon the policy of publicity, and these were generally favorable to the removal of the secrecy injunction from the treaty.

English Press Displeased.

London, Jan. 12.—Most of the morning papers comment upon the situation in the Philippines, drawing the inference that Senator Foraker's remarks in the senate chamber were made by him as the spokesman of the president and expressing their disapproval of a possible relinquishment of the Philippines by the United States.

Spanish War Pensions.

Washington, Jan. 12.—General Wheeler appeared before the house committee on pensions and made a fervid appeal for a special pension bill giving to the widows and relatives of those who fell at Santiago and other battles of the Spanish war an amount commensurate with the gallantry of those who lost their lives.

General Wood at the Capital.

Washington, Jan. 12.—Major General Leonard Wood, military governor of Santiago, is here. He breakfasted with Secretary Alger and then repaired to the White House for a consultation with the president respecting internal conditions in Cuba. He expects to leave Washington, returning to Cuba next Monday.

Universalist Trustees.

New York, Jan. 12.—The trustees of the general convention of Universalists met here. The chief business was the appointment of a missionary to Japan, appropriations and the election of a financial secretary.

Christian Church Revival.

Last night there was a largely increased audience at the Christian church. The pews were filled, chairs in the aisles were filled and the lecture room had to be opened to accommodate all. Rev. Bartlett is a great preacher and has the faculty of thoroughly interesting his hearers. Last night he elucidated the subject of repentance, and appealed strongly to all still yielding to sin not only to turn around, but also to go back. Two more were added at the close of the service. His subject tonight is, "How One Boy Discovered that There is no Place Like Home."

Output of the Klondike.

No one will ever know exactly how much gold was taken from the Klondike fields the past season. Since the English government imposed a royalty, the miners have adopted all sorts of ruses to evade the law. It is rather difficult to dodge taxes, but it is more difficult to dodge a bad cold and the grip at this time of year. When the system is weakened by such attacks, and the blood becomes thin and impoverished, the best medicine to take is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This remedy builds up the system. Besides regulating digestion, it overcomes constipation. It is good for the kidneys and liver, too, stimulating these organs into the proper performance of their functions. Nothing is so good for malaria.

The New Receiver.

Judge Noah J. Dever, as predicted in the Times two weeks ago, has been appointed receiver for the Farmers' National bank, to succeed David Armstrong, resigned. The appointment was made yesterday by Comptroller Dawes. Judge Dever will enter upon his duties at once.

HOOP POLES

Are Causing Carter County Men Some Trouble.

They Sold Them but the Buyer Did Not Pay for Them

And Now They Are Trying to Attach Some of His Money—Two Peculiar Cases—Court House News.

Pharoan and Albert Ramey, doing business as Ramey Bros., in Carter county, Kentucky, have brought suit in attachment against Frank F. Rowe, of Scioto Furnace. They set forth that July 2d, 1898, Rowe bought 110,000 shaved hoops from them, agreeing to pay $112.50. He paid $100 and owes the balance, with interest. They alleged that he has money in the Portsmouth National bank under the name of M. Young, and that Geo. Geibel, of Ironton, owed him money.

Livingstone S. Beckett also brought suit in attachment against Rowe, for a claim of $368. Rowe bought 66,000 shaved hoops at $4 a thousand, and 33,000 shaved hoops at $3 per thousand, of Mr. Beckett, but he never paid a cent on them. Beckett also alleged that Rowe had money under the name of M. Young in the Portsmouth National bank and that Geo. Geibel, of Ironton, owed him. Sheriff Rickey, acting under orders of the court, garnished the money in the bank and money in the hands of Geo. Geibel. This raises the question of "Who is sheriff?" again. An effort will be made to show that Rickey is not legally sheriff and has no right to garnish the money.

It appears from the story of the plaintiffs that Rowe, who lives at Scioto Furnace, tried to buy the hoops early last spring, but the Kentuckians were shy of him. Then Geo. Geibel, whom they had done business with, said Rowe was all right, and so they let him have all the hoops he wanted. He sold part of them to Geibel, and the money due from this sale is what the plaintiffs are seeking to attach.

M. Young is a young woman who runs a boarding house at Scioto Furnace. Rowe boards with her, it is said, and has placed money in the Portsmouth National bank in her name. Plaintiffs claim she has no property and that the money belongs to Rowe.

The case of Phineas B. Chaffin vs. Isaac Pyles and Elizabeth Pyles, for damages, was heard by Judge Milner this morning. Evidence showed that Pyles had moved a saw-mill shed from off Chaffin's land. The shed contained lumber valued at about $250. Judge Milner dismissed the case as to Elizabeth Pyles and gave judgment against Isaac Pyles for $10 and costs.

The case of J. M. Augustin vs. M. B. Evans was passed.

The paternity suit of Mary Fillmore against Newton Bond was heard to a jury this morning. The case was for damages, the child in the case being dead. The jury found for the plaintiff, after few minutes consideration and ordered Bond to pay her $100.

A GOOD SHOW

Will Be Presented at the Grand Tonight by Clay Clement.

Clay Clement and company arrived in the city today from Paris, Ky. They will show tonight at the Grand opera house, presenting "A Southern Gentleman."

This is the third appearance of Mr. Clement in Portsmouth. He made a great hit with theater-goers the first season he showed here and last year played to a packed house. The audience was delighted with him. This season he appears in a new play and has received the same enthusiastic approval wherever he has showed. He is an exceedingly clever actor and is supported by a good company. It can be recommended to Times readers as a show of unusual merit. You will not regret it if you see "A Southern Gentleman" tonight.

Antone Giesler was arraigned this morning. He plead guilty to stealing the boots from the Sample Shoe company and made a great plea for mercy. SEVENTEENTH

Anniversary of Knights of St. George Celebrated

By Commandery No. 101 at Their Hall Wednesday Evening—Elegant Banquet and Eloquent Toasts.

Commandery No. 101, Knights of St. George, celebrated their seventeenth anniversary Wednesday evening, at their hall, on West Fifth street.

The hall was decorated in elegant style, and the mottoes of the commandery were conspicuous upon the walls. About fifty members, with their wives, mothers and sweethearts, were present to partake of the elegant supper, which was served by A. Knittel.

Cards and dancing were the features of amusement afforded during the evening, the music for the dancers being furnished by the Aeolian Quartette.

Prizes for the highest points scored in cards were won as follows: Gentlemen's first prize, a fine opal shirt stud, by Adolph Glockner; the second, a fancy pearl-handled pocket-knife, by John Baron. The ladies' first prize, a fancy gilt candelabra, was won by Miss Sallie Friel; the second, a fancy piece of Dresden china, was won by Mrs. Lucy Guthgessell.

The lowest points were scored by A. Hurth, Sr., and Miss Emma Griebel, they each receiving a prize in accord with their points, which happened to be very small.

After the banquet Geo. Goodman was called upon to act as toast-master, and in a very short, but pleasing talk, he called upon Rev. Father Louis Nonnan to give an address on the "Life and Death of St. George."

The reverend Father spoke in a very forcible manner and created a great deal of applause by the way in which he treated his subject. After his address the toast-master called upon Rev. Father J. E. McGuirk to respond to a toast upon the subject of "Catholicity," which subject was handled in a very able and eloquent manner by that gentleman.

The next to respond to an address was Jacob Yuenger, his toast being "The Object of the Knights of St. George." This subject was also very ably handled.

After the toasts the assembly dispersed, delighted with their evening's enjoyment. The banquet was in charge of Messrs. Geo. A. Balmert, Herman Huels, Jr., and Louis Weber.
